The Lone Star Historical Miniatures (LSHM).

We promote miniatures wargaming in primarily historical periods but also fantasy/sci-fi. We are not dedicated to one rule set or scale. We promote miniatures wargaming by running events, helping local conventions, and assisting with tournaments, financial backing and run demo games. We will also run gaming classes at schools. We encourage all gamers to be a part of our group to help support our common hobby.

MillenniumCon is here!!!!

Its been a long 2 years but we are finally here – only a few days to our annual war-gaming convention 11-14 November in Round Rock at the Wingate Hotel and Convention Center. I hope you are able to attend – if not, watch our facebook page and the December newsletter for reports and pictures.

We will have a number of new events and items at this year's MillenniumCon – this year we will have a Texas BBQ food truck available on both Friday and Saturday for lunch and dinner. We will host the first Middle Earth Strategy Battle Game Texas Championship tournament, Flames of War will return to MillenniumCon as a Sunday tournament, and we will once again host the Texas Bolt Action Championship tournament.

As in the past we will once again be holding our Membership drive – please see the front desk to renew or become an active member of LSHM and support the club.

“CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS”

Many wargamers have expressed frustration as COVID caused the tabletop guns to go silent for last year’s MILLENNIUMCON. However, a pandemic could be but one cause of a cease fire of the simulated shots exchanged in the convention’s game rooms. The other concern is for the dedicated LSHM members who plan and operate the MILLENNIUMCON event. To borrow a few military analogies, the LSHM “Thin Red Line”, in order to maintain our major November ‘muster’, is nearing the “Schwerpunkt” needing ‘relief’, reinforcements’, ‘battle buddies’, ‘wing men’, and ‘augmentees’ to maintain ‘mass’ and ‘initiative’ as MILLENNIUM grows and improves. In other words, volunteers are sought from Lone Star Historical Miniatures’ 900-plus members to engage MILLENNIUMCON. The specific needs are for assistants to work with the Games Director and the Registration chief.

Those who are moved to answer the call are urged to contact either Charlie Torok, torokc@hotmail.com, or Ian Strauss, ian.straus@att.net. LSHM has ambitious MILLENNIUMCON goals for tournaments, wargamers, vendors, and the annual Veteran’s Day experience.

Congratulations to James Womack on the opening of THIRD COAST GAMES in Friendswood Texas – stop by and visit the store and say hi.

BDR Battle Report

By Mark Reed

We had a great game of DBR Thursday had two new armies being fielded as Dutch Colonial with Tupaya Allies vs Portuguese Colonial with Tupi Allies fighting over trading rights in Brazil around early 1600's. Dutch had 3 commands, 1 of mixed Pike, Shot with Artillery, a second of Shot and a third Allied command of Bow and Warband. Portuguese Commands were 2 of Shot and Artillery, with a 3rd also of Warband and Bow.

Dutch Shot was ordinary, where Portuguese Shot was Fast. Difference is Shot Fast has a shorter range, but QUICK kills Shot Ordinary in close combat. Portuguese were defending, and set at mid table. Dutch set up with 3 lines, Tupiya on the left, Pike command angled in the center and shot command on the right, refusing the flank.

First set of pics are Tupi and Portuguese moving after Dutch first move. A woodline divided the Portuguese European troops from their allies. Second set of three pictures show ending positions. Portuguese pushed a column of shot out on their left to threaten the Dutch shot, Dutch countered by refusing their right and sending out a small section of shot to deal with them. After being recoiled several times, three Portuguese came into Hand to hand against 4 Dutch. 1 Portuguese shot was destroyed and 2 recoiled, this was the only hand to hand by Euro troops. Good shooting eliminated one arty piece and another 2 Portuguese shot in the center. No Dutch troops were eliminated.

On the Portuguese right, a line of Tupaya of mixed Warband and Bow clashed with Tupi that placed their Bow on their left and Warman on their right. Early losses were a Tupaya Warman killed by shooting, and then two Warman lost in Hand to Hand. Tupi casualties quickly mounted when the TupayaxWarband closed on the archers and a solitary shot stand from the Dutch center joined the fight. Several double kills were made and suddenly, the Tupi broke after losing 10 stands. Although allies, the native forces were large commands, both being over half their respective armies. So when the Tupi broke, it also broke the army. As both native forces (Brazilian tribes) were cannibals, Tupaya hosted the post game meal, having Tupi and a few Portuguese for dinner! Portuguese were commanded Chief Rusty and General John. Dutchwere commanded by Two hat Mark.

Can't be too careful with cannibals!

Howdy! I worked out a deal with the Patrick Heath Public Library in Boerne to host Flames of War games in one of their convention rooms for November 6th. If anyone is interested in going, I don't have much terrain for more than 2 tables. So please bring terrain! Starts at 10:00am and ends at 4:00pm. If other people bring terrain and battle mats, we could have up to 5 games going with the space we have available to us. There are plenty of local restaurants near by that you can pick up food at or have it delivered (Or you could be smart and pack one 😊) Hope to see y'all there!!! See Less FOW D-Day Mission: Evan (US infantry) hit the beach against Chris (German Beach Defense infantry) in the FUBAR mission. It was fun learning the tweaks regarding both the American boat landings and the German field fortifications.

We had a warm up last Thursday at Heroes' Retreat and then played it more to its conclusion on Saturday at the Boerne Library. The Americans landed their infantry first followed by tanks and mortars. The Germans' view of the beach was obscured by two forested areas and thus the Field Marshall elected to place nearly all the minefields and barbed wire entanglements on the German side of the forested areas.

The Americans ground down the right sided infantry unit killing them to the stand, but that objective was still held by a mortar nest that was supported by three recon SkKfz 250/9s and later by Panzer IVs.

The Shermans were picked off by 88 fire from the bunkers while the Panzer IV platoon of five tanks only suffered a single casualty from P-47 rocket fire. The other objective was well covered by an infantry unit that suffered much less in casualties along with two machine gun nests and a mortar nest.

The American flamethrower teams dished out some casualties and withstood withering fire from the Germans but in the end did not last long enough to crack the Germans. It was a lot of fun to use the Hit the Beach mat along with the fortifications.

The game went slower because of all the extra die rolls for the boats and the very difficult killing of dug in infantry along with the fortifications (they all required two successful firepower tests!). Evan painted up American boat sections with beach basing and hedgehogs on some of the bases ... very cool. Off next Thursday but back again on 14 October for Team Yankee/WW III.

Battle Tech

By Frank Crull

There are various items prized in the Battletech Universe. For the Clans, the returned Star League Defense force, a Bloodname (a last name), is the most prized event. When a name becomes available, 15 Clanners get sponsored for that spot. The 16th spot slot is a mass free for all, with various Omnimechs and different pilot/gunner values. Such a battle was played recently at Dragon's Lair.

This was the opening turn, with players opening an equidistance on the board. Almost all the mechs were medium mechs, but a Timber Wolf A was taken with a less than stellar pilot. The player was counting on his firepower to offset the piloting.

Typically, in a Bloodname play in slot, players fight other mechs 1x1 without interference. The odd player out since seven players were involved just got to watch and wait for his opponent. The Hellion, though became the mech everyone wanted to kill since it was fast and no one had taken weapons to shoot a fast mech. The Cauldron-Born reported this problem at the end of turn one, being savaged by the Hellion and falling down.

On turn 2, the Mad Dog without an opponent closed on the Cauldron Born and Hellion, sensing a quick end to the fight. The Cauldron Born, despite having some good weapons like an Ultra Autocannon/20, was close to finished from the Hellion. The Cauldron Born shut down on this turn and under the Bloodname rules, the Hellion could not fire on a shutdown opponent.

Unexpectedly, the Timber Wolf's opponent was destroyed, so the Mad Dog went after the Timber Wolf. The Cauldron-Born was nearly dead. On the other side of the map, a Blood Asp and Blood Kite were damaging each other.

This event includes both the Gunslinger and Open
Tournaments. The 2019 Classic
BattleTech Gunslinger Tournament is a single-elimination tournament and is a warm up to the Open Tournament. The 2019 Classic
BattleTech Open Tournament is a two round tournament. Both tournaments will be fought using the Total Warfare rules.

Unexpectedly, the Timber Wolf's opponent was destroyed, so the Mad Dog went after the Timber Wolf. The Cauldron-Born was nearly dead. On the other side of the map, a Blood Asp and Blood Kite were damaging each other.

On Turn 5, the Cauldron-Born was still alive, but down to one weapon. The Blood Asp and Blood Kite were still fighting as well as the Mad Dog and Timber Wolf.

On Turn six, everything changed. The Cauldron-Born was destroyed. The Blood Asp and Blood Kite decided to team up until they were down to the last two mechs. The Timber Wolf and Mad Dog did the same. Everyone wanted to destroy the Hellion because it was fast and carried a Heavy Large Laser that could punch holes in Mechs. Since two mechs were killed, it was permitted to team up with other units. It's somewhat funny to see medium and heavy mechs be so worried about a light mech.

The Hellion, like any smart player when the universe teams up against you, went into hiding the next turn. Since there were viable targets on the board, the two make shift teams started shooting at each.

To the Strongest Ancients Game

by Bruce Syvinski

Three LSHM members played an ancients wargame using a fictional scenario where the Carthaginian Army invades ancient Dacia (current day Romania).

The Dacian Army was supported by allied forces including warrior infantry from the Bastarnae Tribe, heavy cavalry from the Sarmatians, and a contingent of Roman infantry and cavalry units. The ruleset used was "To the Strongest!" Fast-moving rules for Ancient and Medieval Wargaming by Simon Miller.

Who: Blake Radetzky, Rodney Castro and Bruce Syvinski
When: Saturday October 16th 2021
Where: The Printed Meeple in San Antonio

Summary: The game was a close contest between the two armies. The Carthaginian Army advanced with cavalry attacking on both flanks.

Most of the action early in the game was between the Romans on the Dacian right flank and the Sarmatians Allies in the Dacian left flank. The two armies later engaged in heavy fighting in the center involving many deep formations of warriors. The game lasted 14 rounds and ended in a closely contested Carthaginian victory.

Of Note: The “To the Strongest!” rules use a unique activation system driven by playing cards. Blake Radetzky introduced an alternative to using playing cards by using poker chips, numbered as cards, held in bags. This enabled faster game play and produced less clutter on the game table.

URBAN MANHUNT

Urban Manhunt is a fast-playing, inexpensive miniatures game in which each player controls a single hunter, as they compete by eliminating criminals (or "crims") in sectioned-off areas of prison cities for points. Particularly creative or brutal eliminations earn hunters bonus points!
When time runs out, the hunter with the highest point total wins the match.

Lone Star Historical Miniatures

We promote miniatures wargaming in primarily historical periods but also fantasy/sci-fi. We are not dedicated to one rule set or scale. We promote miniatures wargaming by running events, helping local conventions, and assisting with tournaments, financial backing and run demo games. We will also run gaming classes at schools. We encourage all gamers to be a part of our group to help support our common hobby.

If you are not a member of LSHM please think about joining now. This would be a great time to join. We hope to see everyone at the gaming table!!!
