MILLENNIUMCON 2022
Texas' largest War-Gaming Convention

November is all about MillenniumCon for us here in Texas. We hope that you can attend, or plan to at least stop by and say hi. This is really the big event for us here each year. For those who wish to just stop by and see what MillenniumCon is all about we do offer non-participant free admission – plan to visit the vendors and spend some $$ supporting their businesses – what a great way to do your Christmas shopping early!!!! And of course, don't forget yourself on that list.

November is Veterans Day, many of us in the LSHM Club are Vets – thanks to all who serve and their families. And finally have a great Thanksgiving this year.

Lots of great events still ongoing around Texas – visit the Events calendar inside the newsletter.

We sadly say goodbye to a fellow war-gamer and friend. Rick and I played many a wargame over the past 4-5 years. We played our final game at last years MillenniumCon – a good competitive game of SAGA – he and I also played Bolt Action and Lord of the Rings. I will miss you buddy – Rest in Peace!

I ran a 15mm Vietnam game set during the Easter Offensive of 1972. ARVN Rangers supported by a cavalry squadron attacked a hastily set up PAVN defensive line during Operation Lam San 1972.

COLD WAR COMMANDER

Just the Enemy Weapons Data for Combined Arms Operations, 1972

The ARVN had to push through to make gains towards Quang Tri in order to begin a reversal of PAVN gains in the preceding weeks. ARVN won! The Sky Raider played a pivotal role with a devastating napalm strike on the T-54 battalion arriving from reserve and halted the advance. Here are some pics.

Rules used were Cold War Commander V2 with some house rules.

ACW black Powder Battle Report

By Dave Bennett

Sunday, we played an ACW battle in 15mm using the Black Powder rules. It was my first time to play this ruleset and I have to say I enjoyed them a whole lot more than I thought I would.

This was just a throw-down battle Andrew Kennemer set up for us and not a historical battle. There were 5 objectives on the table (represented by LITKO burning markers) and the goal was to control more of them than the enemy at the end of turn 8.

There was a lot of back and forth during the game and many a 15mm figure fell in this heated exchange.

At the end though the Federals eaked out a victory controlling 3 of the objectives while the Rebels held one and contested one. Here are some pictures of the game:

Flames of War World War II

San Antonio, Texas

By Chris Lisanti

Mid War FOW Wrap Up: Mark Leroux and Warren Andrews (US glider and Lee companies) attacked Chris (German grenadiers) in the Bridgehead mission at about 150 points.

The Americans came forward and once they killed one of the two anti-tank rifle teams, then they just kept coming and assaulting the grenadiers. The grenadiers held on, but not enough as combined direct and indirect fire combined with several amazing US tank assaults whittled one of the two platoons down to a morale check which they failed.

The German reserves came on late and the Tiger tried to pick off tanks at range but could only pull off a single 4+ die roll in seven attempts (a shame for an upgraded Tiger with ROF 3 and re-rolls on failed firepowers). Additionally, the tank busting Stuka showed up only twice and merely bailed a couple of tanks. Good work by the Americans.

The Battle for Arcadia

By Frank Crull

Battletech lore talks about the Second Exodus by Nicholas Kerensky to escape the reemergent Inner Sphere corruption from the Pentagon worlds. The faithful followers of Kerensky vowed to return to the Pentagon worlds. The followers did, after twenty years, as the Clans.

The first battle fought by Clan Steel Viper at Arcadia against the Ilkasur Shogunate. The Clan forces had to seize control of the communications array held by the Shogunate to manage the planetary assault.

The Shogunate forces, being at a weight disadvantage, but possessing a numerical advantage, elected to stay behind the outpost's walls.

The Clan forces approached in a line toward the main opening in the wall. The Clanners furthermore expanded the size of the wall by blowing down a section of wall.

Shogunate forces refused to abandon their position, staying behind the wall completely. The two Spider mechs that ventured out could not be seen by the Steel Viper forces. The Vipers elected to confront those two mechs, hoping to entice more Shogunate forces out into the open.

This approach totally backfired. The Shogunate forces were able to conduct back shots into the Steel Viper Hunchback and pop off its ammunition supply, resulting in an explosion and the destruction of the Hunchback.

The Steel Vipers at that point elected to charge the Shogunate forces and force their forces into outpost.

The attempted force attempt went poorly. Several Viper mechs fell after taking brutal fire from the Shogunate forces. Conversely, the Clanners were having one of those days when they could not hit the broadside of the barn.

The last hurrah of the Steel Vipers showed a major push to take the communications array. Unfortunately, damage to the Clanners mechs were too great to overcome and the Clan forces were wiped out, despite getting close to the array, but never seizing control.

Historically, the failure of the Steel Vipers to seize the array reflected what happened. The Vipers failed and Clan Jade Falcon was sent to complete the job. The Falcon success has led to enmity between the two Clans until the return to the Inner Sphere by the Clans.

Austin Middle Earth Strategy Battle

Hi Folks,

Following a bit of a slowdown we have begun to rally the banners and get the Austin MESBG group playing on a regular basis again. Partnering up with Game Kastle Austin we have a dedicated time (the first Monday of every month) to gather. We also worked with LSHM for some support for a few opening events.

Our first gathering was (naturally) called Orctoberfest and took place at Game Kastle on October 3d. Attendance was 8 players (6 playing standard games and 2 getting a "learner's overview"). Three players walked away with gift cards at the end of the event.

The next gathering will be on Monday, November 7th starting around 6pm. Thanks again to GK Austin and LSHM.

GREAT ESCAPE GAMES

Preparing for MCon with a test game of 1914 from Great Escape Games.

By Pete Atack

Got several of us together to give a final test for the convention scenario. Two British brigades are rapidly moving the trying cut off to fast moving German brigades seeking to turn the Allied flank around Mons in 1914.

The Germans have a numerical advantage but can't risk stopping and getting into a protracted fight with the British who have a slight quality and Firepower advantage. But they also can't totally ignore the BEF, so how will you / they balance their requirements to win?

Texas Wargaming: A little bit of everything!

We play F&F Regimental. The Cav. is a little different but seems to work OK. Our Mex Am War stuff is 10mm. For Napoleonic's I use different rules. These pics are of La Salle rules in 15mm, A bit stuffy for me but still fun. I have and am bringing to Mil-con 2mm Napoleonic.

For this I use Basics Battles Supp. For Basic Impetus Rules, a newer quick play game. I also use Bring up the Guns rules by Larry Brom of Sword and the Flame fame. A quick play large battle convention game that I helped develop for my 2000 plus Airfix figs from the Sixties and Seventies.

Playing that at the Norbert Gislare Tournament in Baton Rouge tonight. Pics to follow! I even have Nap. figs for the Chipco Le Petite Emperor rules. We have used Napoleons Battles and Shako I and II, Black Powder, even Sabres & Muskets.

A set of rules written by Travis Milton, another Brom protege, that were designed for quick play convention games. All of the writers I have met over the years say that the rules they write are just a guideline and to adjust their rules to fit how I want to play... We add and subtract things and make house rules to fit.

Lone Star Historical Miniatures

We promote miniatures wargaming in primarily historical periods but also fantasy/sci-fi. We are not dedicated to one rule set or scale. We promote miniatures wargaming by running events, helping local conventions, and assisting with tournaments, financial backing and run demo games. We will also run gaming classes at schools. We encourage all gamers to be a part of our group to help support our common hobby.

If you are not a member of LSHM please think about joining now. This would be a great time to join. We hope to see everyone at the gaming table!!!
